Business of the Month

Sunset Hills Country Club Sunset Hills Country Club, a privately member-owned establishment in operation since 1924, is the June 2014 Edwardsville/Glen Carbon Chamber of Commerce Business of the Month.

Boasting one of the oldest golf courses and private country clubs in Southern Illinois, Sunset Hills Country Club is proud of its rich history. The club has many long-time members, who are lifelong Edwardsville residents, who've passed along their knowledge to a new generation of families and members at Sunset Hills. Sunset Hills Country Club is a family-oriented, private, members-only club with something for everyone.

Founded in 1924, Sunset Hills was formerly known as E.G. Golf Club. The name was changed in the 1950's to Sunset Hills Country Club.

"Our primary focus is on the families of the Edwardsville and Glen Carbon community. Once a very exclusive golf only club, we have achieved our goal of being received as a family oriented facility that all our members enjoy," shared Jon DePriest, PGA, director of golf operations at Sunset Hills Country Club. "We have new membership promotions and long range plans for improvements to the golf course and the total facility," DePriest added.

Sunset Hills Country Club is involved with the Gateway PGA Foundation, First Tee of Greater St. Louis, and support all of the local home town charities.

"Ed/Glen Chamber membership has greatly benefitted Sunset Hills Country Club. It has given us many great networking opportunities and helps us continue to be involved in the community," DePriest said.

Sunset Hills is for serious family fun: "It's where you belong!"

Sunset Hills Country Club is located at 2525 South State Route 157, in Edwardsville. To learn more, call 618.656.9380 or go to www.sunsethillscountryclub.com genuinely me.

I have a genuine love for kids and learning. At Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, I'm bringing them together by studying elementary education. Plus, I have the opportunity to gain practical experience at SIUE's East St. Louis Center, where I can help kids in the community learn and grow. A quality education is in my financial reach at SIUE. It's hard not to have a great experience with such a beautiful campus and great mentors. Here, I'm making a genuine difference in people's lives — and in my future.

Before you decide, visit siue.edu to see why the "e" equals excellence.

Gateway Regional Medical Center Names New Chief Operating Officer

Matt Blevins has been appointed to the position of chief operating officer (COO) at Gateway Regional Medical Center (GRMC) effective May 30, 2014

Blevins has more than 10 years of experience, serving in leadership positions at several hospitals and a number of healthcare companies.

For the past three years, he has served as CEO of Select Specialty Hospital, a 40 bed acute care hospital in Kansas City, Kansas.

"I look forward to working with the dedicated team of professionals at Gateway Regional Medical Center. It's because of their continuous hard work that GRMC has become such an important asset to the Granite City community," said Blevins. "Patients have come to expect high quality care with every visit to this hospital and I'm honored to be a part of the team providing such an experience for our patients."

At Select Specialty, Blevins led the revitalization of an organization that had multiple strategic and financial opportunities. During his time there, Blevins recruited a number of core specialists to the community including wound care, pulmonology and internal medicine. He also led the hospital through the conversion from traditional paper documentation to an electronic medical records system as a step toward providing patients an even more convenient and quality experience.

"Matt offers a level of healthcare management expertise and a background in business development that will help us navigate the hospital through all the changes we see in the healthcare industry," said Ed Cunningham, CEO of Gateway Regional Medical Center. "We look forward to working with him in his new role as our new COO."

SBDC International Trade Center to Present Legal Symposium on International Trade

Tuesday, July 22 from 12–2pm, the Illinois SBDC International Trade Center will present a program on the legalities involved in international trade. Registration and networking luncheon will begin at 11:30am. The event will be held in the Hickory/Hackberry rooms of Southern Illinois University Edwardsville's Morris University Center. There is a $35 to attend.

Speakers are Jalesia McQueen and Salim Awad, partners, McQueen Awad, LLC. McQueen Awad is a business law firm located in St. Louis, serving clients in Missouri and Southwestern Illinois. Some topics that will be covered include sales and distribution agreements, drafting, negotiation and litigation strategies/dispute resolution, U.S. law compliance for international transactions, intellectual property protection, legal considerations in Latin America, and key opportunities and challenges. There will be a Q & A and the opportunity of speaking with the presenters at the end of the program.

Who Should Attend: Exporters, importers, sales managers, and anyone who needs to understand the elements, risks and opportunities of international sales agreements and other important legal matters when doing business abroad.

Space is limited and registration is required. To register, please refer to the attached form and fax it to 618.650.2647 or via e-mail at International-Trade-Center@siue.edu. You may also go to www.siue.edu/business/itc
